

Obscure White Wine Flight $23

Two Grapes you've never heard of!

There are so many unique grapes in the world and we love highlighting some of the best ones that usually fall under the radar.

We'll be pouring through some fun oddities like Scheurebe, Sylvaner and Welschriesling. All very different and very delicious

White

Somm Pick White half gls 16 full gls 30

This week we're pouring some riesling from Klaus Peter Keller, who many consider the world's greatest producer of riesling. These wines all come from his grand cru vineyards. Pure, driving mineral and rock salts. Pair with Dry Aged Trout!

Rare Oregon Italian White 17

Waxy, herbal, tropical. This might be the only example of the Italian grape Garganega grown in Oregon!
bow & arrow, willamette, oregon 2025 garganega

White Light/White Heat/White Rioja 16

It's not often you get to taste white Rioja!
alegre valganon, rioja, spain 2024 viura blend

A who's who of some of germany's best growers. This week will be Julian Haart, Weiser Kunstler and Emrich Schonleber.

Sparkling & Skin Contact (rosé + orange)

Complex Local Pet Nat 16

Tastes like you stuck your hand inside a grilled pineapple, but instead of honey it was filled with apple skins and elderflower.

Lightly Chilled Summer Oregon Red 16

Drink with a Burger

Tastes like a prickly pear and hibiscus iced tea made by monks who only eat apricot pits, rocks and feelings. A unique blend of red wine and skin contact orange wine. It has beautiful floral aromatics but drinks like a light red.
