

WINES on the wild side

The best non alcoholic sparkling wine-ish thing we've ever tasted. Produced in Copenhagen by a team who worked at the Noma fermentation lab, this is bonkers good. It's made with fermented gooseberries, quince kefir, jasmine tea and woodruff & geranium kvass. W.T.F. yum

LOCAL TEMPRANILLO NOVEAU!!! Nouveau wines are part of an old french tradition of releasing a small amount of young wine just a month after harvest. At this point the wine is often still fermenting and is's bright, fruity, spritzy and wild. It's like drinking wine straight from the barrel and only happens once a year :)

Savory Autumnal French Rosé that has never been released to the public before. In years past, Guiberteau would produce this just for his vineyard workers to drink. But it was too good not to share.

Drink with Chicken Torito Salad.

Bone Dry, German Riesling from the sorcerer of the saar. Lauer's wines are amongst the greatest on the planet. Pure driving acidity with some tropical fruit and loads of minerality.
