

AGED WINES!

14 Year Old Chablis! If you've never had aged Champagne, here's your chance. Young Chablis is all freshness and mineral, but with age it picks up a whole array of savory, salty, nutty, creamy characteristics. There is nothing else like it. Drink with Mushroom Pasta and die happy.

25 year old Barbaresco! Wine geeks always say the Nebbiolo grape needs age but who has the patience to sit on a wine for 25 years?? Luckily, we do the hard work for you. Full bodied, rose petal, fresh turned earth, dried cherry...it's basically perfect.
Pair with your list of most delicious things you've ever drank.

RARE EUROPEAN NATURAL WINES

One of the Most Singular White Wines in the World. Stefan Vetter is the master of the Sylvaner grape and no one else makes wines with as much finesse and purity as he does. Tastes like you mixed fresh alpine lake water with creamy meyer lemon, quinine & fennel and froze it all into a popsicle. Scallop Crudo Wine.

Beguiling, Super Unique, Medium Bodied Red that tastes like salty plum skin rolled in dark chocolate and eucalyptus. Joiseph is the most famous Austrian natural producer that no one has ever heard of. Only a couple cases of this have EVER made it to Oregon.

The best non alcoholic sparkling wine-ish thing we've ever tasted. Made by a team who worked at the Noma fermentation lab, this is bonkers good. It's made with fermented gooseberries, quince kefir, jasmine tea and woodruff & geranium kvass. W.T.F. yum

The Final Wine from a French Legend. Dominique Belluard helped prove that the Alpine region of Savoie could make world class, natural wines. Sadly, he passed away in 2020 and this is one of the last wines he made. Tastes like salty apple skin and good comte cheese spread over toasted country bread.
Pair with Warm Beignets!
