Guimaro: Mencia to Melt Your Mind Flight of two wines - $25

Guimaro might be making the world's greatest Mencia based wines. These are soulful, wild, authentic wines made by a family of farmers.

Ribeira Sacra, the region, is known for its unfathomably steep vineyards - vineyards so steep that if you slipped, you would fall 1600 feet into the river and die. Embrace life, drink Mencia.

For the flight, we're featuring two wines:

Camino Real tastes like pomegranate, raspberry bramble and black pepper

Finca Capeliños is from a single vineyard of 100 year old vines and tastes like a cornucopia of every spice that every existed on earth mixed with burnt orange peels. This wine is beyond rare - I went all the way to Spain to visit him and we still only get 3 bottles a year! Insane insane wine.

Red

Sexy, Spicy, Canary Islands Red (4oz) 18

The wines that Envinata make from the remote canary islands are bonkers. Tastes like a French Pinot Noir that fell into a volcano.

Drink with Leeks & Wild Winter Mushrooms

Grippy Italian Sangiovese 16

Tastes like the good fruit leather you'd get from a fancy health store but made out of strawberries, violets and crushed granite.

Steak Wine!
