

3 Different Rieslings from Lukas Hammelmann

Riesling is the greatest grape in the world and here at Ok Omens it's always Riesling season.

Winter? Riesling is basically a tropical beach in a glass.

Spring? Drink with fava beans!

Summer? Replace all your water consumption with Riesling!

There is never a bad time to chug a Riesling, so you should probably get started tonight.

This week we are featuring 3 wines from Lukas Hammelmann. Since 2016, Hammelmann has built his estate on a spirit of fearless inquiry, despite residing in a village known more for onions and potatoes than Riesling

His wines are so far from local typicality that they can feel disorienting, cerebral, even downright bizarre. But their energy and complexity are undeniable; they draw you in and keep you salivating for more.
