

The Majestical Wines of Weiser Kunstler

Despite the relatively young age of their estate (est. 2006), the wines of Konstantin Weiser and Alexandra Kunstler offer us a glimpse into the halcyon days of Mosel wine. They farm a handful of breathtakingly steep vineyard parcels: Gaispfad, Ellergrub, Steffensburg. These grand crus are living time capsules, home to ungrafted vines that date back to pre-WWII, when Riesling truly was king.

Even without context, the purity, levity and finesse of these wines are undeniable. Never not beautiful, they range from chiseled to silky, perfumed and citrusy to mineral water-pure. Allocations are released and disappear almost at once, and it's rare we pull corks on these treasures, let alone on so many at once.
